

The Campus Took Kit:

Against the Odds: Powerful Practices to Drive Educational Opportunity

21st Century Scholars & First Gen

- DFA Contact - Someone specialized in Financial Aid, the FAFSA, and willing to take walk in appointments
- Scholarship Expert
- General Courses/opportunities – Financial Literacy, Resume Workshop, LinkedIn workshop, Free professional head shots
- Maximize sharing opportunities and ‘How To’ guides: ‘How to fill out the FAFSA’, ‘How to Study Abroad’,
- Coaching Sessions – Scheduled Check In
- Student Portfolio’s

Military Connected Students

Education Benefits

GI Bill is a VA Benefit

- Starts with Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from the VA
- Certifying Official on Campus is student's next visit
- 5 Chapters of the GI Bill, all are different

Indiana State Benefits

- Child of a Disabled Veteran
- Purple Heart Recipient

Federal Benefits

- Federal Tuition Assistance
- DoD Education Vouchers

(Not ROTC)

Military Connected Students

Military Absence Leave Policies

Military Withdrawal Policy

Priority Registration for courses

CAC Card computer accessibility

Study Center – common space

Nontraditional student support

Peer Access Coaching, Student Orientation Program

Awareness Training – Green Zone

Against the Odds: Powerful Practices to Drive Educational Opportunity