

THE HOWEY POLITICAL REPORT

The Weekly Briefing On Indiana Politics

This is a Special Howey Political Report just for kids. It will tell you about the presidential election between Bill Clinton and Bob Dole. Don't forget to vote. It is your duty!

Thomas A. Howey

editor & publisher

PO Box 532

Morristown, IN 46161

317-763-7666

“QUOTE” OF THE WEEK

“Just don't do it.” –Sen. Bob Dole

“I feel your pain.” –President Bill Clinton

It is Clinton against Dole for president

MORRISTOWN, Ind. - Tomorrow, our parents will go to the school to vote for president. The kids in Mrs. Prigg's first grade class will vote too.

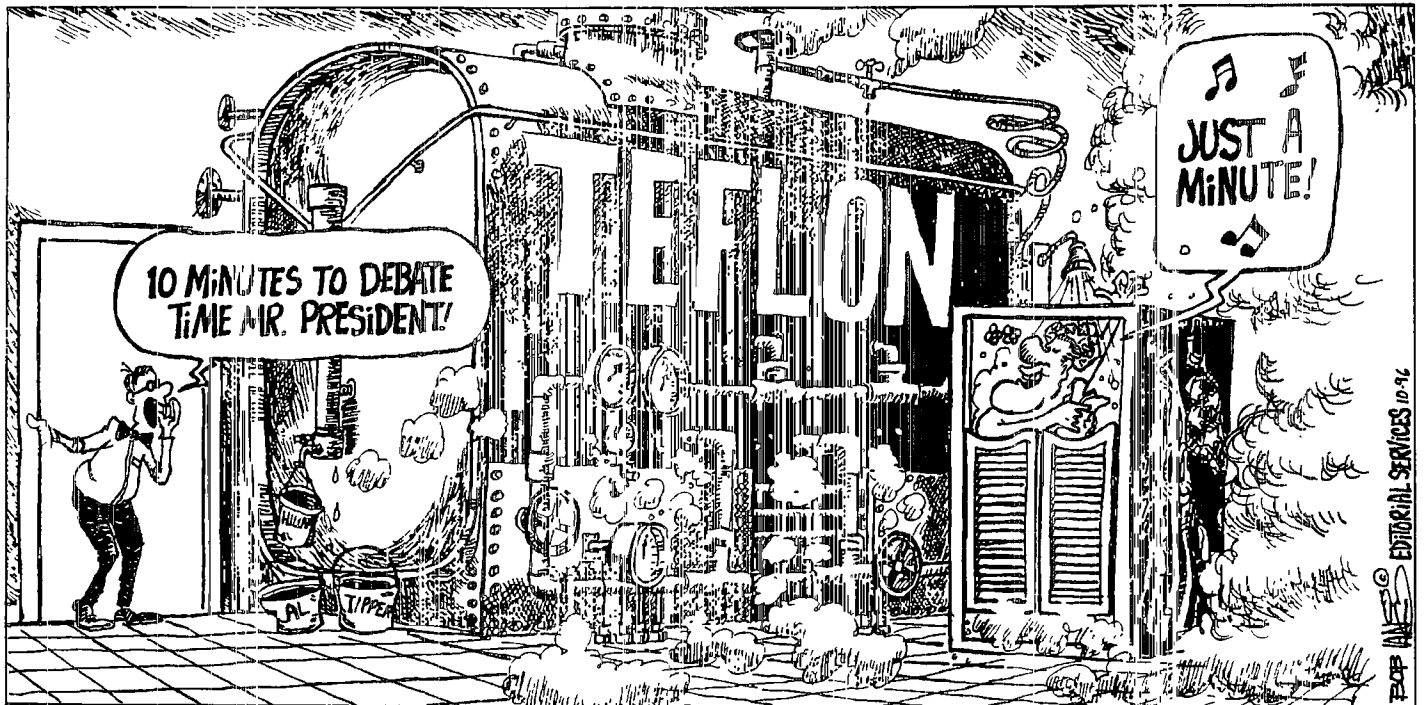

President Bill Clinton wants to serve four more years in the White House. He is a Democrat. Bob Dole is a Republican who says he can do the job better.

How can you tell when an election for president is near? There are all those TV commercials about Bill Clinton and Bob Dole. Some of your parents may grumble about those commercials.

But, that is a small price for having the freedom to vote!

INSIDE F E A T U R E S

- President Clinton is from Hope page 2
- Meet Bob Dole from Kansas page 3
- Thomas's Political Cartoon page 4

Bill Clinton comes from Hope

HOPE, Arkansas - Bill Clinton is our 46th president. George Washington was our first president. Clinton lives in the White House in the city named after our first president.

Bill Clinton is a very nice guy. He comes from Hope, Arkansas. That is the same state that Wal-Mart started. His wife is named Hillary. She is the First Lady. He has a teenage daughter named Chelsea. They have a cat named Socks, who lives in the White House.

Our president travels by helicopter and by jet. When he lands at the airport, people come and greet him. Some cheer for him. Others wave and yet others yell at him.

Bill Clinton waves back. After that, Clinton rides in a limo. He likes to work and he likes to be with his family.

Bill Clinton tells people about issues. He wants more policemen to help people. He helps kids go to school. The president asks us not do bad things. He likes to give speeches.

After he talks to people, he shakes hands with the people. Then, he goes home very tired. He works in the Oval Office in the White House. Bill Clinton does not have to leave home to go to work.

Yet he visits people in other states and countries and tells them not to do bad things. The End.

Bob Dole comes from a small town

RUSSELL, Kansas - Bob Dole thinks he will be a better president than Bill Clinton. That is why he is running. He is a Republican.

He comes from a little town like Morristown. He is from the state of Kansas. That is the same state that Dorothy and Toto from the movie "Wizard of Oz" are from.

When Bob Dole was in the army, he got hurt in the arm really bad during a battle. It took him a long time to get better.

He is a good guy, too. But he is jealous of Bill Clinton. Bob Dole thinks our parents should not pay much money for taxes.

Bob Dole's wife is named

Elizabeth, but people call her "Liddy." She likes to walk into crowds and chat with people. She used to work with the American Red Cross.

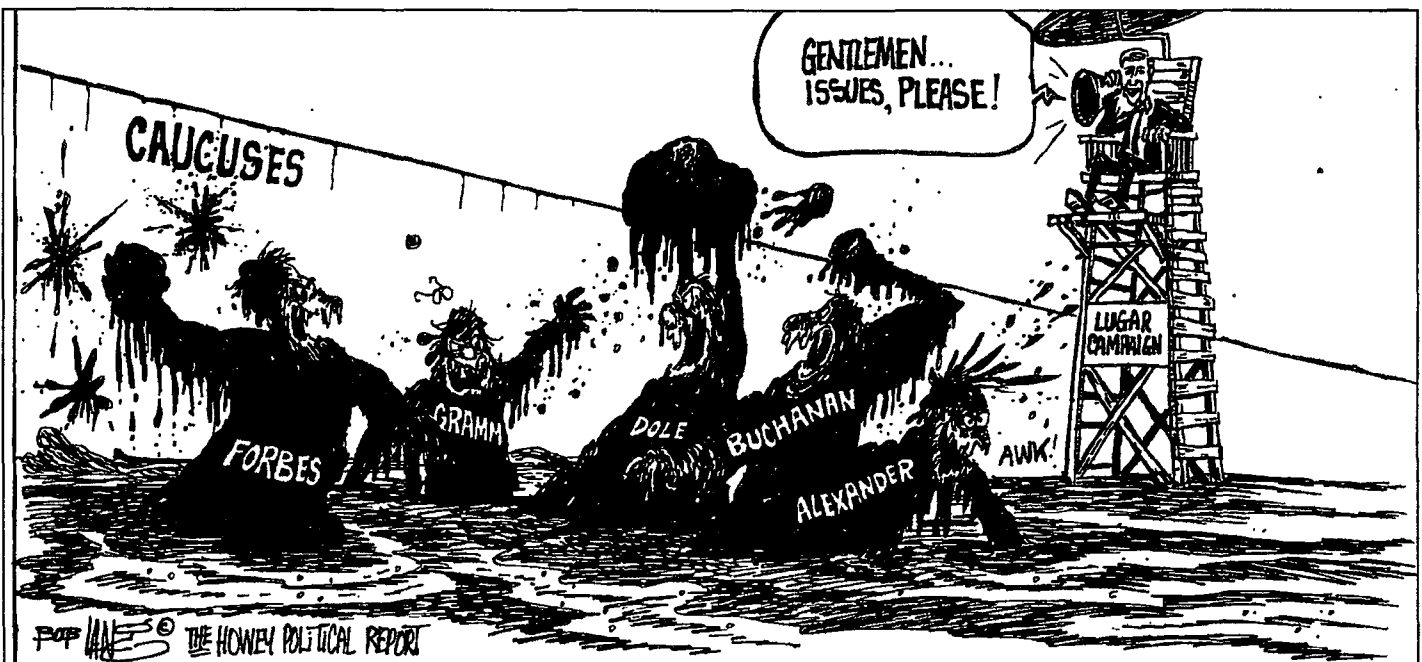

He has a daughter who is grown up. Bob Dole used to be a senator. He has a dog, too.

Senators write laws. Dole quit that job to run for president.

If Bob Dole wins, he will live in the White House. He says he will help people get jobs and build homes. He will help people who run stores.

He rides in a jet with his name on the side.

If he does not win the Election, he will probably retire. The End.

A Political Cartoon

'Pigs Can Fly'

By Thomas A. Howey

Polls will be open at the school from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

If you see your Mom and Dad at school tomorrow, it does not mean you are in trouble or your dog is sick. It means they are there to vote for president, governor, congressman legislators and Shelby County officials.

Do not forget to tell your parents to vote on Tuesday!