Location and Access

Parking and trails. To reach the trails north of the lake: from the intersection of SR 9 and US 30 on the north side of Columbia City, go north on SR 9 about 7 miles to the Noble-Whitley County line. Go 0.5 mile west on the county line road to a marked parking lot on the south side of the road. There are two trail loops through the preserve.

To reach the trails south of Little Crooked Lake: From the intersection of SR 9 and US 30, go north on SR 9 about 6 miles to CR 600N and go left (west) 0.5 mile to Spear Rd. Go north on Spear Rd 0.5 mile to a parking area on the right. A trail loop circles eastward through this part of the preserve.

Description: This preserve contains over 0.5 mile of undeveloped shoreline on one of Indiana's cleanest and deepest lakes. Forested slopes are dominated by beech and sugar maple associated with green ash, shagbark hickory, red oak, sassafras and white oak. The understory consists of sugar maple, ironwood, green ash, beech, and flowering dogwood. There are wetland habitats including marshes and calcareous seeps along the shore, and an island in the lake itself. Included in the preserve is one acre which serves as a memorial to former Governor of Indiana, Ralph F. Gates. This tract is owned by ACRES, Inc. The portion of the preserve south of Little Crooked Lake includes wooded slopes, open field, and a large pond which is covered with spatterdock plants during the summer.
