To Whom It May Concern:

As previously communicated in correspondence dated January 15, 2013, Hologic, Inc. ("Company") has developed plans to restructure certain operations at the facility located at 6100 Technology Center Drive in Indianapolis, Indiana. In keeping with these plans, the first employment separations were effective on or about March 29, 2013. This letter is to communicate additional information regarding this restructure.

At this time, the Company anticipates additional groups of affected employees will be laid off or have their employment terminated on July 29, 2013, September 27, 2013, November 15, 2013 and December 20, 2013 or during 14-day periods that begin on these dates. A list of job titles and the number of employees currently holding affected positions accompanies this letter as Attachment A. This letter is based on the best information currently available. You will be informed of any changes or as additional information becomes available. These plans, when finalized, would be permanent and result in closure of the entire facility. Bumping arrangements are not available for affected employees. There is no union representation involved.

To the extent that these plans involve a covered event under state or federal notice laws, this letter is intended to fulfill any requirements under those laws. By providing this information, however, the Company does not concede that such laws apply or that notice is required.

If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Hennigar at 781-999-7352.

Sincerely,
