

Public Meeting Notice

BOARD OF INTERPRETER STANDARDS

The Board of Interpreter Standards (BIS) will host public meetings statewide in October and November. The Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS) invites interpreters, consumers, service providers, and anyone who uses interpreting services to join us to express ideas and concerns on the current rules for the Indiana Interpreter Certificate program for community and educational interpreters. The current rules are posted online for your review at: http://www.in.gov/legislative/iac/iac_title?iact=460&iaca=2&submit=+Go+

- Rule 2.1—Establishment of BIS, pages 1 to 3
- Rule 3—Indiana Interpreters Standards, pages 3 to 10
- Rule 5—Indiana Educational Interpreters Standards, pages 38 to 41

Meetings are FREE and open to the public.

Interpreters and CART service will be available.
