

Public Meeting Notice

STATE OF INDIANA COORDINATING UNIT

The State of Indiana and South Central Indiana Interpreting (SCII), the new Coordinating Unit for the state's interpreter services, will host public meetings statewide in October and November. The Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS) invites interpreters, consumers, service providers, and anyone who uses interpreting services to join us to learn about changes to Interpreter, CART, and Video Remote Interpreter services that will take place beginning January 1, 2010.

These changes will apply to all DDRS communication needs, including Vocational Rehabilitation Services (VRS) and Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services (DHHS).

Meetings are FREE and open to the public.

Interpreters and CART service will be available.
