

Riley Children's Health Pediatric Trauma, Burn & Emergency Care Symposium April 12, 2024

Program Overview

The conference features nationally renowned faculty in the fields of pediatric trauma, critical care, emergency medicine and prehospital care. Participants will be able to discuss with experts in a team environment topics regarding evidence-based guidelines, scientific inquiry, tools and resources available to help provide the best outcomes for critically ill and injured children.

Content

- Fluid Resuscitation of Pediatric Trauma Patients: Whole Blood, TXA, Balanced Transfusions and More
- Indy Car Safety
- After the Injury: Acute Stress and Post Traumatic Stress
- Non-Accidental Trauma Workup
- Non-Accidental Trauma Documentation
- Cervical Spine Evaluation and Management
- Seatbelt Sign- Assessment, Imaging, Management
- Button Battery and Magnet Ingestion
- Mild Traumatic Brain Injury and Concussions
- Sports Injuries
- Management of Pediatric Burns: Prehospital and Emergency Department

Information:

Dawn Daniels, PhD, RN, PHCNS-BC
Program Manager, Injury Prevention and Trauma Service
dmdaniels@iuhealth.org

Marcy Strine, MSN, NPD-BC, CPN
Manager Continued Professional Development
mstrine@iuhealth.org

Dallara IndyCar Factory
1201 N. Main St.
Speedway, IN 462

Fee Information:

$25 Registration for Physicians,
Advanced Practice Providers, Nurses,
Respiratory Therapists, and EMS.
Includes morning refreshments, lunch, handouts. Parking is free.

Additional Training Offered:

Simulations and Skills training will be available with limited space.
Participants may sign up for session during morning registration.

Registration:

https://iu.cloud-cme.com/course/courseoverview?P=0&EID=93196

Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Health