

ICSSBM

The Indiana Commission on the Social Status of Black Males

What is the ICSSBM?

The Indiana Commission on the Social Status of Black Males

The mission of the Indiana Commission on the Social Status of Black Males (ICSSBM) is to study the social conditions of the state's black male population, develop strategies to remedy or assist in remedying serious adversities, and make recommendations to improve educational, social, economic, employment and other circumstances for Hoosiers. Our commitment to help build strong black men focuses on five key areas:

- Criminal Justice
- Education
- Employment
- Health
- Social Factors

The Indiana Commission on the Social Status of Black Males (ICSSBM) is involved in a number of programs and initiatives serving black males in the State of Indiana. A few of the notable ones include:

- The Black Barbershop Health Initiative
- Indiana Dad's Expo

Statewide nine commissions help to address the concerns of black males in their local communities.

- Anderson
- Bloomington
- Evansville
- Fort Wayne
- Gary
- Indianapolis
- Jeffersonville
- Michigan City
- Muncie

Contact Us

Indiana Commission on the Social Status of Black Males

100 North Senate Avenue, Room N103

Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

(317) 234-1389

www.in.gov/icssbm