Osburn Named Superintendent of Indianapolis Juvenile Correctional Facility

Indianapolis, Indiana (July 11, 2008)—Indiana Department of Correction Commissioner J. David Donahue has promoted Ms. Frances Osburn to the position of Superintendent at the Indianapolis Juvenile Correctional Facility effective July 10, 2008.

“With her 23 years of experience in the Indiana Department of Correction, I am confident that Ms. Osburn’s leadership and experience will serve the facility well,” said Commissioner Donahue.

Ms. Osburn has been with the Department since 1985, when she began her career as a correctional officer. Most recently, Ms. Osburn has been the Assistant Superintendent at the Indianapolis Juvenile Correctional Facility.

Ms. Osburn holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from Indiana University and a Master’s Degree from Oakland City University.
