

NEIGHBORHOOD ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Indiana Housing & Community Development Authority

WHAT IS NAP?

- Established by Indiana Code 6-3.1-9
- Offers $2.5 million in tax credits annually for distribution by not-for-profit organizations, up to $15,000 per organization.
- An incentive to help them leverage additional contributions from individuals and businesses for programs and services benefiting economically disadvantaged neighborhoods.

HOW DO NAP CREDITS WORK?

NAP Approved Organizations work with specific donors to provide tax credits. Organizations, corporations, individuals and Donor Advised Funds (DAF) are all eligible to make a contribution to a NAP agency. When they do, they will receive a tax credit on their Indiana taxes worth 50% of their contribution.
