

Matt Deitchley Appointed LaPorte District Media Relations Director

LaPorte District employees greeted Matt Deitchley, the district's new media relations director, on February 20. Deitchley has a television background, working for stations in South Bend and Terre Haute. He also has published articles for a local magazine, In Michiana.

Deitchley lives in South Bend and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Ball State University, majoring in Telecommunications.

Best wishes in your new position Matt!