Regional Priorities:

Rachel Price from USI lead the group through a Paired Comparison Analysis exercise to prioritize the regional priorities discussed at the October 3, 2014 meeting. Through the exercise the group decided employability skills and marketing were equally important. The group also diverged on the system alignments per regional priority.

1. Employability Skills
1. Marketing
2. Career Ready (Recognized) Certificates
3. Work Based Learning (Internships)

The Regional Priorities with System Alignments will be sent to Dana Carter and Sam Snideman by the November 17th deadline.

Public Comment:

Sam Snideman / CECI mentioned the 2nd round of the CTE grants are due in January. Most Works Councils are utilizing their December meeting to discuss and approve the grant proposals.

Laurel Smith motioned to adjourn the meeting at 2:20 p.m. Central Time. Bob Stemple seconded. Motion passed.
