

1990-1-370

SECTION 370. That the said trustees of the Indiana Asbury University, before entering upon the trust reposed in them, shall severally take the following oath of office, to be administered to them by any judge in Indiana, that is to say: I, (A. B.) do solemnly swear, (or affirm) that I will to the best of my skill and judgment, faithfully and truly discharge the duties of a trustee of the Indiana University, pursuant to the laws and constitution of the State of Indiana, the constitution of the United States, and the charter granted by the State of Indiana, establishing said university, without favor, affection or partiality, so help me God. And the said trustees shall have power to appoint, annually, a president of the board from their own body, a treasurer and a secretary; and the treasurer, so appointed shall give bond, with such security, and in such penalty as the trustees shall think proper, payable to the State of Indiana, for the use of said university. The bond, shall by the treasurer and his securities be acknowledged, before the clerk of the circuit court of Marion county, and by him certified and recorded in his office. A copy of which shall be evidence in any suit against such treasurer and his securities, for a breach thereof. The bond shall be conditioned for the true and faithful discharge of his duty as treasurer of said university, and for the safe keeping of all money belonging to the institution, or which shall be put into, or from time to time come to his hands. The bond may be renewed whenever the said trustees shall require it. It shall be the duty of the said treasurer, to receive and safely keep, all money belonging to said university, and shall not pay out any of the money, except upon the order of the president, counter-signed by the secretary. For any breach of said bond, the treasurer and securities may be proceeded against as upon other official bonds, in the proper courts in Indiana. The bonds, notes, obligations, or conveyances of real, personal, or mixed property belonging to said university shall be deposited with the secretary, subject to such rules and regulations as the board of trustees may from time to time prescribe. The said treasurer shall, moreover, once in every year, and as much oftener as the trustees may require, render to them an account of all money in his hands, and all money by him paid out stating from whom or what source received and to whom paid. And in case the treasurer shall fail or refuse to perform any of the duties required of him by Local Acts 1837, C.4, as amended, the trustees of said university shall have power to declare his office vacant, and proceed to the election of a treasurer to fill the vacancy. It shall be the duty of every treasurer, on leaving the office, by removal, resignation, or otherwise, upon the order of the board, signed and counter-signed as aforesaid, to pay and deliver over, all money and other property in his hands, belonging to said university, into the hands of his successor in office. And it shall be the duty of the secretary, to keep a fair record of all the proceedings of the board of trustees. At the close of every session lay them before the president for his signature, and to do and perform all other acts, which by Local Acts 1837, C.4, as amended, may require of him. It shall be the duty of the president of the board, to preside in all their meetings, when present, and to perform all the duties which are usually performed by the presiding officers in all similar bodies. In case of his absence at the time of any meeting of the board, it shall be the duty of the trustees to appoint a president pro tem.

1990-1-371

SECTION 371. It shall be the duty of the mayor to preside at the meetings of the council, and, in case of a tie, to give the casting vote; and in his absence the council shall elect a president pro tem. of their own number, to sign all laws, ordinances, and decrees of a public nature, also to sign all the by-laws and minutes of their proceedings.

1990-1-373

SECTION 373. The said certificate shall be assignable; but no assignment thereof shall be valid unless acknowledged before the mayor, and recorded in such recorder's office of said town.

1990-1-376

SECTION 376. (a) This act is intended to resolve technical conflicts among acts enacted by the general assembly and to correct other technical errors. This act is not intended to change the effective date of any statute or otherwise result in any substantive change in the law.

(b) This act does not affect any:

- (1) rights or liabilities accrued;
- (2) penalties incurred;
- (3) violations committed; or
- (4) proceedings begun;

before the effective date of this act. Those rights, liabilities, penalties, offenses, and proceedings continue and shall be imposed and enforced under prior law as if this act had not been enacted.

(c) Any reference in any statute or rule to a statute that is repealed and replaced in the same or a different form in this act shall be treated after the effective date of the new provisions as a reference to the new provision.

1990-3-151

SECTION 151. (a) This act is intended to correct repealed or incorrect citations in the Indiana Code. This act is not intended to change the effective date of any statute or otherwise result in any substantive change in the law.

(b) This act does not affect any:

- (1) rights or liabilities accrued;
- (2) penalties incurred;
- (3) violations committed; or
- (4) proceedings begun;

before the effective date of this act. Those rights, liabilities, penalties, offenses, and proceedings continue and shall be imposed and enforced under prior law as if this act had not been enacted.

(b) IC 3 applies to an election held under this SECTION.

(c) Notwithstanding any other statute, before the department acquires, disposes of, or exchanges real estate in the county for purposes of locating a park in the county, this must be complied with.

(d) The county election board shall place the following local public question on the ballot prepared for the voters of the county at the November 6, 1990, general election in the following form:

"On the question of a state park in Tippecanoe County, do you: (choose one)

Favor the Prophetstown site near Battleground?

Favor a state park, search for another location?

Favor a state park and have no preference of location?

Oppose any state park in Tippecanoe County?".

(e) The county election board shall place the local public question authorized by this SECTION on the ballot in the order prescribed by IC 3-11-2-14. If more than one (1) local public question is placed on the ballot, the county election board shall place the local public question authorized by this SECTION on the ballot following any other local public question.

SECTION 1. (a) This SECTION applies to the alienation, inheritance, or assignment of:

- (1) an easement that was created before January 1, 1990; and
- (2) an interest in an easement described in subdivision (1).

(b) As used in this SECTION, "easement" refers to an easement in gross of a commercial character (as defined in IC 32-5-2-1). The term includes without limitation an easement in gross of a commercial character (as defined in IC 32-5-2-1) that was acquired by eminent domain.

(c) Unless the instrument that created an easement states that the easement may not be alienated, inherited, or assigned, an alienation, inheritance, or assignment subject to this SECTION that occurred before April 1, 1990, is legalized and declared valid.

(d) This SECTION does not revive or reinstate an expired, a terminated, or an abandoned easement.

1990-185-1

SECTION 1. The definitions set forth in P.L.357-1989(ss), SECTION 1, apply to this act.

1990-185-2

SECTION 2. For the conduct of state government, its offices, funds, boards, commissions, departments, societies, associations, services, agencies and undertakings, and for other appropriations not otherwise provided by statute, the following sums in SECTIONS 3 through 8 are appropriated for the periods of time designated from the general fund of the state of Indiana or other specifically designated funds.

1990-185-3

SECTION 3. The following appropriations are made in addition to those found in P.L.357-1989(ss), SECTION 3:

Goodwill Industries Building Purchase	180,000
---------------------------------------	---------

The trustees of Purdue University may issue and sell bonds under IC 20-12-6, subject to the approvals required by IC 20-12-5.5 for the following projects so long as the sum of principal costs of any bond issued does not exceed the total authority listed below:

PURDUE UNIVERSITY

West Lafayette Campus
Generator Purchase	3,000,000

The Trustees of Purdue University are authorized to acquire and install new generator equipment on the West Lafayette campus at a maximum principal cost of three million dollars ($3,000,000), inclusive of all acquisition, installation, planning and other related costs, but excluding interest and financing charges, costs, and expenses. The Trustees of Purdue University are further authorized to pledge any of its available funds not otherwise encumbered as may be required to secure repayment of the bonds, together with interest and financing charges, costs, and expenses. This project must be repaid from operating funds.

Animal Disease Diagnostic Laboratory	10,700,000
--------------------------------------	------------

The Trustees of Purdue University are authorized to construct a new building and related facilities, for use by the animal disease diagnostic laboratory as established under IC 15-2.1-5 on the West Lafayette campus at a maximum principal cost of ten million seven hundred thousand dollars ($10,700,000), inclusive of all construction, planning, architectural, and other related costs, but excluding interest and financing charges, costs, and expenses. The Trustees of Purdue University are further authorized to pledge any of its available funds not otherwise encumbered as may be required to secure repayment of the bonds, together with interest and financing charges, costs, and expenses. The Indiana Department of administration, acting on behalf of the Indiana state board of animal health, in recognition of the board's statutory functions involving the animal disease diagnostic laboratory, is authorized and directed to enter into a lease agreement, as lessee, with The Trustees of Purdue University, as lessor, covering the new building and facilities, providing for the sole use and occupancy of the building and facilities by, and for the purposes of, the animal disease diagnostics laboratory. The annual rental amounts payable to the lessor under the lease shall not be less than the amount of annual principal, interest, and debt service costs of the lessor, for the same annual periods, under its bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued for the construction of the building and related facilities. The Department of Administration is further authorized and directed to enforce the lease, and all renewals, until the total rentals paid to the lessor equal the total principal, interest, and debt service costs of the lessor under the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness. After the total rentals paid by the lessee equal the total principal, interest, and debt service costs of the lessor, the Trustees of Purdue University shall permit the animal disease diagnostic laboratory to occupy and use the building and related facilities rent free. The authorizations are in lieu of bonding authority in the amount of nine million dollars ($9,000,000) and authority to enter into a lease agreement with respect to the animal disease diagnostic laboratory granted by P.L.209-1988, SECTION 14.

In addition to the above authorizations, the trustees of Indiana State University may issue and sell bonds under IC 20-12-6, subject to the approvals required by IC 20-12-5.5 and IC 23-13-18 for the following project so long as the sum of principal costs of any bond issued does not exceed the total authority listed below:
