MEMORANDUM

TO: Select Focus and Priority Schools

FROM: Charlie Geier, Director of Early Learning and Intervention
Cindy Hurst, Title I Coordinator

DATE: March 5, 2014

SUBJECT: I003(a) Grant Opportunity

Grant Information

The Office of Early Learning and Intervention is offering a school improvement planning grant opportunity for Priority Schools that have received F grades for two (2) or three (3) consecutive years via the state accountability system, and Focus and Priority schools in F districts. This project is intended for schools to build leadership capacity and stronger school improvement plans that are aligned with USDOE's Turnaround Principles for Focus and Priority schools and Title I Schoolwide and PL 221 requirements.

Participating schools will be required to choose either Option A or Option B and use funds to partner with AdvancEd to complete work, provide professional development, and complete grant activities. Option A has a limited number of awardees. If Option A is chosen and the school is not awarded Option A, Option B may be awarded to that school. The completed grant with a clear plan must be submitted to the Indiana Department of Education for review. Additionally, any reports or data collections required from IDOE, such as a Final Expenditure Report, must be submitted in a timely manner.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Select Focus and Priority Schools

FROM: Charlie Geier, Director of Early Learning and Intervention
Cindy Hurst, Title I Coordinator

DATE: March 21, 2014

SUBJECT: 1003(a) Grant Opportunity – Round 2

Grant Information

The Office of Early Learning and Intervention is offering a school improvement planning grant opportunity for Title I Priority Schools that have received an F grade for one (1) year via the state accountability system, and Title I schools in D districts which have received a D grade via the state accountability system for the 2012-2013 school grade. This project is intended for schools to build leadership capacity and stronger school improvement plans that are aligned with USDOE's Turnaround Principles for Focus and Priority schools and Title I Schoolwide and PL 221 requirements.

Participating schools will be required to use funds to partner with AdvancEd for professional development in regards to writing a school improvement plan, as well as training staff in areas of need. The intent of this grant is to provide the resources necessary to convene a school leadership team to write an effective school improvement plan and build leadership capacity. The completed grant with a clear plan must be submitted to the Indiana Department of Education for review. Additionally, any reports or data collections required from IDOE, such as a Final Expenditure Report, must be submitted in a timely manner.
