PUBLIC HEARING:

#11-09: Jeffery Woolever requesting a Special Exception to allow an expansion of an Agribusiness. the property is located at 1623 S. CR 700 E. Logansport, Indiana and is zoned AG, Agricultural.

Chris Gaumer sited the location of the business and explained that this is a grandfather use and any change is subject to special exception approval by this Board. Mr. Gaumer stated the following issues:

- 2 pole barn structures will be constructed
- Equipment currently stored outside will be moved to pole barns
- Lighting will be provided on the front and side of proposed structures
- A metal sign will be installed, 5ft X 10 ft, 50 sq. ft.
- A variance is needed for the sign due to being larger than allowed
- Hours of operations: Mon. - Friday 8:00am – 5:00pm
- Parking is provided with access off CR 700 East.
- No landscaping is proposed
- 14 employees

Jeff Woolever, 1557 S. CR 700 E. Walton, stated that he wishes to build 2 pole barns and in the future, connect one of them onto the existing building and this will be used for a tool room and storage.

Robert Hopper questioned the lighting of the sign. Mrs. Shaver explained that the lights will be for security purposes and not signage.

The conditions of approval were read:

1. That all proposal of the petitioner be made condition of approval.
2. That all other standards of the ordinance be met.
3. That all applicable state and local permits be obtained and proof be given to the zoning administrator.
4. The proposed building may be connected to larger pole building if desired.

Petitioner agreed to these conditions. Findings of fact were completed. A motion to approve the Special Exception was made by Fred Seehase. Robert Hopper seconded the motion and roll call vote was unanimous to approve.
