Course Description:

Through this course, you will go on a visual journey to discover the ways that art has functioned as a tool by rulers, patrons, and religions to shape the world we know today. You will also discover ways that art communicates cultural norms, philosophies, and values. In the end, I hope you become a more enlightened and educated globally literate citizen. AP Art History is designed to be the equivalent of a two-semester college course. We will use two essential components to investigate art through time and place. The essential components are Art Historical Thinking Skills and Course Content/ Big Ideas. They should help you to make connections between art historical concepts and the 250 featured works introduced throughout the modules.
