Provider:
Indiana Online

Course Code:
7183

Content Area:
CTE: Business, Marketing, Information Technology, Entrepreneurship

Course Delivery:
Online

Enrollment Type:
Continuous

Enrollment Deadline:
None

Course Description:
Computer Programming is the Math of the 21st century and we all need to understand it. Take Principles of Computing Semester 1, to understand more about software development in a hands-on, practical way. See how far computing has come. Use the Python programming language to transform an idea into a program. Create apps that solve math problems, predict your fortune and use coding techniques to improve efficiency. Explore Object Oriented Programming. Take a dive into the world of professional software developers.

Credit:
1

Credit Type:
High School

NCAA Approved:
Yes

Contact:
Laura Garmire
lgarmire@indianaonline.org
317-759-5559

Cost:
$275.00

Indiana Course Title:
Principles of Computing - 1