

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 15, 2011

Reporters' Contact:

Kelly Jones Sharp

Chairperson

317-490-5310

Woman's Press Club Announces 2011 Scholarships

Indianapolis -- The Woman's Press Club of Indiana is awarding two $500 scholarships to Indiana journalism students. The deadline for submissions for both awards is April 20, 2011. The awards will be given at the annual banquet on May 21.

Hortense P. Myers Memorial Journalism $500 Scholarship

A former UPI statehouse reporter, Hortense P. Myers was the first woman to work for the International Press Service in 1942. A 1953 graduate of Butler University, Myers was inducted into the Indiana Journalism Hall of Fame in 1977. The $500 scholarship in her honor will be awarded to a junior-level Indiana college student who is planning a career in journalism.

Louise Eleanor Ross Kleinhenz Memorial $500 Scholarship

One $500 award will be made to a woman over age 30 who desires to upgrade her skills to re-enter the journalism job market or to seek a better-paying job. This award is given in memory of Louise Eleanor Ross Kleinhenz, a WPCI 45 year member and former president.

CONTEST RULES are posted at <http://wpcindiana.org/grants.html>.

About the Woman's Press Club of Indiana

Founded in 1913, the Woman's Press Club of Indiana is a nonprofit organization of media professionals in communication. It is a charter member and a current affiliate of the National Federation of Press Women. WPCI welcomes into its membership male and female professional communicators and communications students.