Re: 2010 RHTC Income and Rent Limits

Overview:

Attached is a copy of the HUD 2010 Multifamily Tax Subsidy Income and Rent Limits for the Rental Housing Tax Credit (RHTC) Program. On May 14, 2010, when HUD released the 2010 limits, the hold harmless policy was removed. The removal of this policy means that a county's very low-income (VLI) limit could be less in a year than it was in the year before, and thereby making the rent limit less than it was the year before. However, Rev. Proc. 94-57 lays the foundation for the rents are calculated and when the election of the gross rent floor takes effect. When determining the gross rent floor, the procedure provides that "the limitation under section 42 (g)(1) applicable for any period is not less than the limitation applicable for the earliest period the building that contains the unit was included in the determination of whether the project is a qualified low-income housing project."

Determining the Gross Rent Floor Effective Date:

The effective date of the gross rent floor is determined at the Placed in Service (PIS) date of first building in the development by election of the owner. For a non-bond financed building, either the allocation date or the PIS date of the first building in the development will be used. For a bond financed building, either the reservation letter date of the first building in the development will be used. What does this mean when applying rent limits? If the current income limit for the development went below what the limit was the year before, then the greater of the gross rent floor or the current rent limit will be used.

Implementation:

Which Rent limits to use to determine the gross rent floor?

1. Rent limits for a development PIS on and after May 14, 2010 → 2010 rent limits;
2. Rent limits for a development PIS on March 19, 2009 through May 13, 2010 → 2009 rent limits;
3. Rent limits for a development PIS on February 13, 2008 through March 18, 2009 → 2008 rent limits;

4. Rent limits for a development PIS on March 20, 2007 through February 12, 2008 → 2007 rent limits;
5. Rent limits for a development PIS on March 8, 2006 through March 19, 2007 → 2006 rent limits;
6. If the rent floor is Unknown, the rent will be calculated using the current rent limits.

Examples:

Scenario 1: Project A in FAKE County was PIS on 5/1/02. The gross rent floor was set at the 2002 rent limit of $674 for a 60% 1-bedroom unit. The 2010 rent limit is $645 for a 60% 1-bedroom unit. The 2009 rent limit was $673 for a 60% 1-bedroom unit. The rent limit to use would be the 2002 limit.

Scenario 2: Project A in BLUE County was PIS on 7/1/09. The gross rent floor was set at the 2009 rent limit of $560 for a 50% 1-bedroom unit. The 2010 rent limit is $578 for a 50% 1-bedroom unit. The rent limit to use would be the 2010 limit.

Note: The historical data from 2000 to 2009 is on our website at http://www.in.gov/ihcda/files/Appendix_E- Income Limits.pdf.

Which Income limits to use?

1. PIS date of the development was on or before December 31, 2008 → Current HERA limits.
Note: There have been HERA limits added to several counties that did not have 2009 HERA limits. If the development PIS on or before December 31, 2008, the HERA limits will be used if applicable to the county.
2. PIS date of the development was January 1, 2009 and after → Current County limits

This information was published by HUD on May 14, 2010 and is now posted on IHCDA's web site at http://www.in.gov/ihcda/files/Appendix_E- Income Limits.pdf, in Appendix E of the 2010 Compliance Manual. Existing active developments should implement the 2010 Income and Rent Limits within 45 days of the HUD published date, by June 28, 2010.
