

Surviving the Job

Free 2-Hour Webinar Thursday, July 25 from 2-4pm ET

About this Webinar: This webinar will discuss how to successfully make a career in law enforcement. It will focus on how to work as a law enforcement officer safely, ethically, legally, and successfully. The law enforcement profession is unique and comes with serious consequences if not prepared for properly. Topics covered include: health issues; stress; family issues; and, politics and policing.

About the Presenter: Randy Keys retired as Tampa Police Department Narcotics Master Detective after 23 years of service. He was a DEA Meth Task Force Agent for 6 years and conducted extensive police surveillance operations and undercover narcotics operations for over 20 years. Randy is a nationally recognized instructor for undercover operations, clandestine laboratories and surveillance. He is an instructor for St. Petersburg College and the Hillsborough Community College Police Academy. Randy graduated from the National Drug Enforcement Officer's Academy, Drug Enforcement Administration in Quantico, Virginia and was a Law Enforcement Advisor for US Army in Afghanistan 2008-2009.

Presented by: The Florida National Guard Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training (MCTFT) program and St. Petersburg College.

Cost: No Cost: Tuition-free through MCTFT

Register Here: https://spcollege.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_XHGdVfM\_QXanDb7JOoFrg

Location: Webinar link to be provided before event

Point of Contact: Laura Heisler: heisler.laura@spcollege.edu; (727) 341-4437