

4th Grade Student Essay Competition

Learning IN Indiana!

It's great to learn in Indiana. Write an essay about Learning IN Indiana and you could be honored at a Statehood Day celebration!

The Indiana Center for the Book is hosting an essay competition to commemorate Indiana's 208th Statehood Day! This year's theme is Learning IN Indiana. Winners of the essay contest will be honored on Wednesday, December 11, 2024 at the Indiana State Museum and the Indiana Statehouse. Questions? Email icb@library.in.gov.

Four winners will be selected. EACH WINNER will receive an Indiana529 Deposit of $529.00 made possible by the Indiana Education Savings Authority!

Entry forms are available here:

<http://www.in.gov/library/statehood.htm>

Any Indiana school is welcome to attend statehood day celebrations, regardless of whether or not they participate in the contest or have a winner. Registration is required to attend events. Contact the Statehouse or the State Museum for details.

— ESSAY CONTEST RULES AND DEADLINES —

The competition is open to any Indiana 4th grade public, private, or homeschooled student, in the 2024-2025 school year. A panel of judges from the Statehouse, State Museum, State Library, and the Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana History Center will choose 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th place winners. Winners must submit a permission release form and are required to submit a video of themselves reading their essay.

Essays must range from 100 to 300 words, handwritten or typed.

Essays must be submitted with an entry form. Individual entries should use the 2024 Individual Entry form. Class sets should use the 2024 Group Entry Form. In addition, the following information should be included on each essay for class sets: student name, teacher name, and school name.

Essays should be well organized and reflective of the theme: Learning IN Indiana. Judges are looking forward to seeing your students' interpretation of the theme. Learning can encompass all kinds of things like travel, reading, experiences, passions, and so much more. We hope this theme builds awareness and appreciation for the Hoosier state. This contest supports the following Indiana Educational Standards: 4.W.1, 4.W.3., 4.W.4, 4.W.6.1, 4.W.6.2
