

Indiana House Enrolled ACT No. 1149 Chapter 5.3 Section 7

According to HEA 1149 Section 7, every Homebased Vendor (HBV) must obtain a food handler certificate (basic) from a certificate issuer that is accredited by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) (see below). Upon request, the food establishment/vendor shall provide a copy of the certificate to the local health department, state department or an end consumer.

Accredited Testing Organizations (ANSI-CFP Accredited)

1. AAA Food Manager (714) 592-4100
2. APS Culinary Dynamics (DBA: World Food Safety Organization) – (313) 580-2823
3. Certus/State Food Safety (801) 494-1416
4. Ivy Tech Community College (888) 489-5463
5. Learn2Serv (877) 881-2235
6. My Food Service License (877) 590-5964
7. National Registry of Food Safety Professionals (800) 446-0257
8. National Restaurant Association Solutions (800) 765-2122
9. Purdue Extension (765) 494-8491
www.purdue.edu/servsafe/workshops
10. Responsible Training/Safeway Certification, LLC (512) 872-6071
11. Relish Works, Inc. (DBA: Trust 20) – (773) 831-5692
12. ServSafe (312) 715-1010
13. The Always Food Safe Company, LLC (844) 312-2011
14. Indiana Restaurant & Lodging Association (INRLA) – (317) 673-4211
15. Hoosier Hospitality Consulting, LLC (HHC) – (317) 447-4761
Website: www.hoosierhospitalityconsulting.com

Most of these testing organizations offer class and/or online training and testing which is perfectly fine with the Clinton County Health Department.