Direct State Administration Method

As part of the COVID-19 Response Program, OCRA will set aside $1,582,526.00 from its FY 2019 CDBG, CDBG-CV1, CDBG-CV2, and CDBG-CV3 funds to be distributed through the Direct Action by State method

OCRA will directly carry out activities through assistance provided under agreement with a non-profit recipient in all geographic areas within the State's jurisdiction including non-entitlement and entitlements areas.

OCRA's Proposed Changes

The funds allocated for Direct State Administration will be used to provide hunger relief throughout Indiana in collaboration with Feeding Indiana's Hungry, Inc., a state associate of Feeding America affiliate food banks. Detailed records will be kept to monitor fund distribution to communities. The funds will be used for food bulk purchase, supplies, and operational support to address the impact of the pandemic and enhance resilience against future effects of the coronavirus for low to moderate-income individuals across the State.
