1. Question:

Provide clarity if a physical therapist with an Indiana license practicing in Indiana may provide wellness services, such as sports performance enhancement or personal training, without being restricted to the Physical Therapy Practice Act requirement of requiring a referral from a qualified provider after 42 days. This would be in a case where no physical therapy services related to a PT plan of care for rehabilitation/habilitation are provided, truly wellness or personal training.

2. Question:

Title 842 states that a PT can supervise no more than the equivalent of 3 full-time PTAs if face-to-face daily consultant is not occurring. Does this mean that a PT can supervise 2 full time PTAs and 2 part-time PTAs? Can you please provide clarity on what "the equivalent of 3 full time PTAs" means? Also, please clarify what face-to-face contact entails. Does FaceTime or Zoom count? When daily interaction is face-to-face is the ruling that 4 PTAs may be supervised by 1 PT? Also, where is the source doc for this ruling?

9. ADJOURNMENT
