HOLIDAY ASSISTANCE

Holiday Assistance for Thanksgiving and Christmas is available to residents of Hamilton County. There are Thanksgiving baskets, Drive-Thru meals, or delivered meals available. Christmas assistance includes food, toys, and clothing.

There is also a needs-based Christmas Eve meal delivery for elderly, disabled, or shut-in Hamilton County residents. Applications should be submitted as soon as possible as some assistance is available on a first-come, -first-serve basis.

If you want to apply for Thanksgiving assistance only, applications are due by the first Sunday in November. If you want to apply for Christmas assistance only, applications are due by the last Sunday November. There is an online application and paper application available at the following link: gsnlive.org/holiday-assistance. The deadline for all online applications is December 3rd.

SEASON OF GIVING

Geist Christian Church is providing holiday meals and gifts for children to Delaware Township Trustee’s Office clients for the holiday season. The Trustee’s Office thanks them for their generosity!

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

Thank you to Holy Family Episcopal Church in Fishers for providing Thanksgiving meal baskets to some of Delaware Township Trustee’s Office’s clients.

TRICK OR EAT

Delaware Township Trustee's Office thanks you for coming out to see for our first ever "Trick or Eat" food drive! We received 70 pounds of food that we will use for our on-site food pantry that serves all residents of HSE School District. It was great to talk with members of our community and see all the kiddos in their costumes! We hope to have Trick or Eat again next year so stay tuned for next year's announcement!
